

News Release

Contact:

Kim & Frances Moginie, Joadja Winery

Phone: 02 4878 5236 www.joadja.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

21 January 2010

MUSIC 'IN THE VINES' AT JOADJA WINERY

Nick Rheinberger plays Blues Music in the Vines at Joadja, 24 January 2010

The next "Music In The Vines" event at Joadja Winery on the corner of Greenhills & Joadja Roads, just outside Berrima, will be held on Sunday 24 January 2010, from 1pm.

Free live music, featuring talented local folk/blues musician and radio personality Nick Rheinberger. Along with great wine and music, good food is also on the menu with Tandoori Chicken wraps from Shiva Curries, Mittagong.

Bring a chair, a rug, and join us for a lovely family day at the winery. Please RSVP so we can better cater for you: greatwine@joajda.com or <http://joajdawinery.com.au/music-in-the-vines/>

Rain hail or shine as we can move into the Winery if the weather threatens Sorry, strictly no other alcohol permitted on site due to licensing regulations

SOME FACTS:

- Joadja Winery is the oldest Southern Highlands Vineyard & Winery. Now operating for over 25 years.
- The Property is surrounded by rolling vine covered hills & the music is centred inside the "Boutique Working Winery".
- Increasing popularity is encouraging Joadja to host more Live Local Music each long weekend.
- The Music is held "In The Vines" or "In The Winery" depending on the weather.
- The Music Weekends are very popular with family, friends & wine enthusiasts.
- A lovely way to spend a relaxing afternoon listening to wonderful live music, tasting great local wines & meeting the winemakers.
- Music starts at 1pm on Sunday 24 January (the weekend BEFORE Australia Day) and finishing at 5pm – The Music is FREE & this weekend has an Australian Folk/Blues theme.
- This is a very relaxed family day in the country, BUT very close to Sydney (1.5 hours) and easy to find, just a few minutes from Berrima.
- Bring a chair or rug, a picnic if you wish, BUT food is available – Plenty of room, no crowds.
- Visit the website www.joadja.com to RSVP or for more information.

ENDS