FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

30 March 2010

A VERY SPECIAL FREE MUSIC EVENT TO BE HELD JOADJA WINERY THIS EASTER

Baroque and Renaissance Music will be the feature of a wonderful Music Day at Joadja Winery, Berrima this Easter Sunday from 1pm.

A long established troupe of talented Sydney musos, "The Reluctant Consort", will perform on Easter Sunday amongst the tanks and oak barrels at Joadja Winery.

Playing traditional instruments, recorders, lutes, cello and spinet. They have performed more than 250 concerts during their time together.

Enjoy wine tastings, vineyard walks, true rustic Wood Fired Pizza, coffee and a friendly relaxed family atmosphere in this lovely country setting amongst the vines.

Bring a picnic rug or a chair; enjoy the music and great atmosphere, the beginning of autumn colour and lovely wines at the Southern Highlands' Oldest Winery.

A great day out in the country at Joadja Winery, corner of Greenhills & Joadja Rds, near Berrima.

Please RSVP through our website www.joadja.com or phone 0248785236

Due to strict licence requirements no other alcohol will be permitted on the premises
