FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

8 February 2010

TERTINI WINES

TERTINI AWARDED BEST WINE FROM THE HIGHLANDS

Southern Highlands wine producer, Tertini Wines, has kicked off 2010 in style with a Trophy for the best wine made from grapes grown in the Southern Highlands at the South Coast Wine Show.

The 2005 Tertini Riesling also just missed out on a second trophy for the best wine of the show in a taste off with the Show's other highest scoring wine.

Overall, the 2010 South Coast Wine Show recognised Tertini Wines for exhibiting the best Riesling, best Pinot Noir and best Dessert Wine among the Trophy and 5 medals they were awarded.

Tertini Wines Sales Manager, Robert Kay, said "The results were particularly pleasing because all the main producers were among the 10 Southern Highlands wineries who submitted entries. We were also delighted to have the highest scoring wines in three completely different varieties."

Riesling and Pinot Noir are varieties well suited to the cool climate of the Southern Highlands and they seem to be doing particularly well at Tertini's "Yaraandoo" vineyard near Berrima. For example, the 2005 Tertini Riesling has now won four Trophies, seven Gold Medals and seven Silver Medals at regional, national and international shows.

Viticulture Manager, Paul Quirico, said "We are committed to producing the best quality fruit possible at "Yaraandoo", with hand pruning, regular soil testing, careful canopy management, low cropping and hand picking".

"Then we hand over the fruit to our winemaker, Jonathan Holgate at High Range Vintners, with the expectation that he will craft an award-winning wine, which he has done brilliantly", he said.

In all, the small range of Tertini Wines has now won 127 medals at regional, national and international wine shows since the first vintage in 2005. The wines have also been named "Best in Class" on well over 20 separate occasions.
