

Sydney Cycling Club Ride for a Reason Charity Challenge

Where: Street Parade, Bong Bong Street, Bowral
When: Saturday 26th September
Time: 2.00pm
Contact: Sydney Cycling Club

By special invitation, the Sydney Cycling Club will once again hold its annual 'Ride for a Reason' Charity Challenge from Sydney to Bowral during Tulip Time, all in the name of charity. On Saturday 26th September, some 120 cyclists (in 5-6 bunches) will converge in Bowral, after cycling 160 kms from Sydney via Macquarie Pass, to arrive in time for the McDonald's Mittagong Tulip Time Street Parade!

All keen cyclists are invited to join in the Challenge. For more information including registration see www.sydneycyclingclub.org.au Registration includes an exclusive "Ride for a Reason" jersey.

The ride is a fundraising initiative benefiting the official 2009 Tulip Time Charities, The Children's Hospital at Westmead Centre for Kidney Research and the Berrima District Credit Union (BDCU) Children's Foundation. Please show your support to this important event by cheering them on during the parade and making a donation on the day.

Tulip Time is pleased to provide this opportunity and organisers wish to thank The Sydney Cycling Club, their sponsors and members for their generous support.
