FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

10 SEPTEMBER 2014

KIDS & FAMILY TIME IN CORBETT GARDENS THIS TULIP TIME

This year's Tulip Time Festival will play host to some great children's and family entertainment, kicking off with 'Butterscotch's Playground', brought to you by the Highlands Marketplace, on Tuesday 23 September from 11am to 11:45am. Featuring Greg Page – the original Yellow Wiggle. Kids will be delighted by this fantastic new children's entertainment experience, which is founded on the same interactive early childhood principles that made The Wiggles a household name all over the world. This entertainment experience is included in the visitor garden entry fee.

Later in the week on Friday 26 September there will be Walkabout With The Reptiles in Corbett Gardens, brought to you by the University of Wollongong – Southern Highlands. Everyone is invited to come along and see Australia's only musical reptile show from 1pm – 2:30pm. The show will feature a young salt water crocodile, a 2 metre python, a number of other snakes and lizards, and a turtle too. There's also a frog and a selection of reptile fossils and skeletal replicas. This show is aimed at all ages and is included in the visitor garden entry fee.

Over both weekends, Saturday 20 and Sunday 21 and Saturday 27 and Sunday 28 September children will be able to experience some amazing face painting and glitter tattoos between 10am and 3pm. (Additional charges will apply.)

And to finish off, the last day of the Festival, Sunday 28 September will see Corbett Gardens throw open the gates to our furry four-footed friends. Yes, its Dogs Day Out brought to you by DOGUE, from 9am to 4pm, the only day dogs will be permitted to enter the gardens. Guest appearance will be made by dog behavioral specialist Vicki Austin, dog grooming facilities, Wingecarribee Animal Shelter, RSPCA team together with lots of fun activities and competitions for the young and the young at heart.
