FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

3 SEPTEMBER 2014

LOOK, LISTEN AND LEARN AT TULIP TIME

Every day throughout the Tulip Time Festival in Corbett Gardens (Tuesday 16 to Sunday 28 September), visitors will be able to enjoy talks daily at 11am and 1pm by local garden designers, florists, horticulturalists, authors and much more in the Talks Tent.

The presenters will cover a wide and varying range of topics from how to create a pet friendly garden, everything Truffles, how to raise chickens, tips on flower arranging, establish a backyard vegetable garden down to how you can forage and arrange flowers found in your garden.

The Talks Tent has been made possible by the sponsorship of University of Wollongong-Southern Highland (UOW) and the coordination by Robyn Karakasch, Tulip Time Working Party member.

UOW Southern Highlands Outreach and Community Engagement Officer, Rachel Dyer said 'This is a wonderful opportunity for the Southern Highlands campus to support Tulip Time. We see this as an exciting partnership between UOW Southern Highlands, Tulip Time and the community we both serve.'

'UOW Southern Highlands is both excited and proud to be part of this iconic community event.' UOW Southern Highlands Campus Manager, Sonia Sense said

The Southern Highlands Campus, is situated in Moss Vale, commenced operation in 2002 and is a joint University of Wollongong and Illawarra Institute of TAFE initiative. The Campus has a purpose built facility within the grounds of the Moss Vale Campus of the Illawarra Institute of TAFE. These facilities contain teaching rooms, computer facilities, video conference facilities, and a common room used exclusively by UOW students.

For a full schedule of who, what and when, visit www.tuliptime.net.au and review the full Talks Tent program.
