FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

22 August 2014

ENTER THE TULIP TIME MILE NOW!

Bowral Little Athletics are looking for the best school age runners in the Highlands and surrounding areas to compete in this year's Tulip Time Mile, which will be held at 1:30pm on Saturday 20 September immediately prior to the Tulip Time Street Parade, along Bong Bong Street, Bowral.

This new Tulip Time event is a unique experience providing children with a great opportunity to be able to run along the main street of Bowral, and to be cheered on by 1000's of spectators. With the event being proudly supported by Bowral Little Athletics, Little Athletics NSW and AMART Sports Mittagong; who are kindly donating prizes for the winners.

All runners must be enrolled in Years 3 to 12 schools, with the main entry requirement being the ability to smile whilst running! Runners can have the opportunity to represent their school and have fun at the same time. Entries can be made as an individual or through your school. Runners will need to be able to complete the mile distance (1600m) in 9 minutes due to time limitations. There will be three races according to age, determined by entries received.

Don't wait any longer, entry is FREE however REGISTRATION is essential - download a registration form from www.tuliptime.net.au, or contact Barry Smith, Run Co-Ordinator - P 0411 484 321 or email bazlynda@yahoo.com.
